OWN-BOAT TUITION – CONDITIONS

I hereby accept the following terms and conditions:

- Blue Fin Sailing provides tuition aboard the client's boat on the understanding that the client remains fully responsible for the safety and operation of the boat at all times. The instructor is there purely in an advisory capacity and will not be held liable for any damage or injury resulting from the operation of the vessel.
- The client must ensure that the boat is seaworthy and has suitable safety equipment for the planned exercises.
- If on arrival at the vessel the instructor considers the vessel unsafe to operate he or she is at liberty to refuse to undertake the tuition. In this case the client remains liable to pay the cost of a minimum of one day's instruction plus travelling expenses where relevant.
- The client must ensure that a policy of insurance for the boat is in force covering legal liability for damage or injury to third parties. The sum insured must be at least £1,000,000. The client must inform the insurance company that an instructor will be on board.
- The client undertakes to provide the instructor with meals (and accommodation if appropriate) aboard the vessel to suit the course or tuition timing. The client will also cover all mooring, fuel and general boat expenses.
- Blue Fin Sailing does not accept responsibility, unless it is proved in a court of law to be negligent, for death of, or injury to the client or loss or damage to the Client's property.
- The client acknowledges that there are inherent dangers involved in sailing and understands and agrees to sign the booking form indemnity holding the company and its Instructors free of liability in the event of an accident, death, injury or damage to person or property.
- I declare that to the best of my knowledge I am physically fit and am not suffering from Epilepsy, Disability, Giddy Spells, Asthma, Diabetes, Angina or other heart condition, and I am fit to undertake training.
- I am over 18 years of age and I confirm that I have read and agree to the above conditions.
